Podcasting feed now available from the iTunes music store

My podcasting feed "podcasting@richardhingley.com" is now listed on the iTunes music store under "podcasts->music". This makes it even easier to subscribe to the podcast feed as you can now use your iTunes software to search for the feed rather than manually subscribing. To access, launch iTunes and click music store on the left, then in search music store top right, type "Richard Hingley"

It will take a few seconds to find, when the link is found you can click subscribe and that's it, podcasting@richardhingley.com will be added to your podcast section in iTunes.

The screenshot shows the iTunes interface with the search results for "Richard Hingley" in the Podcasts section. The search bar at the top contains "Richard Hingley". Below it, the results list shows one item: "podcasting @ richard hingley .com" by "Richard Hingley". The item is categorized as "Music" and is described as "By Song Only". The "Relevance" dropdown menu is open, and the "Price" is listed as "Free".

Adventures of a travelling man the podcast mini series

For those of you who have been reading the blog entries on my website will know that I have been making a video for one of my tracks called Travelling Man. The basic concept of the video is that wherever I am in the world and there is a known landmark then I'll setup the video camera, jump into the same clothes (washed obviously) and start filming playing the guitar to the track, eventually this will all be edited together to create a seamless montage of me jumping around the world – the wonders of video editing. Seems simple but this has caused some interesting experiences, from nearly being arrested in Athens, given money by a passer by who thought I was busking in Chicago and most memorably appearing in a Red Light district window in Amsterdam. So with so much to tell I have decided to document these into a series of short story podcasts with each episode a tale from each city or shoot. The first of these from Dubai is available to listen to now, you can easily subscribe to this feed as mentioned above from the iTunes music store or from the Podcasts section on the site.

Members Section

The members section will now launch on the 1st December and not 1st November as previously mentioned, the delay is just to allow me more to get some extra content included. - Hear new music samples before they are available to the main site.
- Special discounts on album and download pricing.
- Advance notice of any live dates or appearances.
- Unseen video clips
- Photo libraries
- Official richardhingley.com merchandise
- Competitions
- Extras

and finally...

I hope you keep visiting the site and please remember to send the site link to anyone you think may like the music.
