Words and Music by Richard Hingley © 2005

Verse 1

Lucid visions of colours abound
Sailing with winds cool breeze
I feel with new understanding
My imagination runs wild

Verse 2

Senses turned off through suggestion
Running scared of what is within
You feel true life is around you
Familiar surroundings – dream on

Chorus 1

See the clouds so far below
See far mountains that glisten with snow
The vapor trails direct you home
To the setting sun you left so far behind

Verse 3

Empty of all comprehension
Time stands still to avoid complication
I've seen you somewhere before
A wondrous journey – dream on

Chorus 2

See the clouds so far below
See far mountains that glisten with snow
The vapor trails direct you home
To the setting sun you left so far behind
