

hiding away

Words and Music by Richard Hingley © 2005

Verse 1

I look into your eyes see the innocence inside
What is your story and where did you come from Looking at the third world from the eyes of the first
And I feel so helpless now....

Verse 2

No shoes on your feet as you walk your beat
For scraps or for money to be taken away
By your unknown master at the end of the day
And I feel so helpless now.... And that's why I feel like

Chorus

Hiding Away – today
Like hiding away – today
Gonna hide away – for the rest of the day
'cos I can't face that face again....so im hiding away

Verse 3

Inside this 5 star castle this fantasy land
Of untold riches you can't understand
But I know you're out there in total despair
And I feel so helpless now.....And that's why I feel like

Chorus to end

Outro
