

time and again

Words and Music by Richard Hingley © 2005

Verse 1

Time and again you feel the same way
It's red or black and it's round and round
The indecision it mirrors your life
Sometimes up and sometimes down

Bridge 1

Don't know why you feel like this
You must escape and try to fly free
Like a phoenix who gets new life
Breaking out of the fire inside

Verse 2

Time and again you want the best deal
It all hangs on the roll of a dice
Are you the bandit or maybe the Joker,
Take control of those demons inside

Bridge 2

Can you guess the outcome
The next card is your final chance
Why me is always the question
The mirror answers the truth for you

Chorus 1

It's gonna ruin your life
Time and again you can change your mind
Time and again it seems to work, but
Time and again you'll always lose in the end – someday

Break

Regrets – no hope – remorse – the loser – last chance - joker

Chorus 2

It's has ruined your life
Time and again you changed your mind
Time and again it seemed to work, but
Time and again you'll always lose in the end – someday
